

FLORIDA RETIREMENT SYSTEM PENSION PLAN

SUMMARY PLAN DESCRIPTION
as of July 1, 2012

SUMMARY PLAN DESCRIPTION

The following summary is a brief description of the Florida Retirement System Pension Plan as of July 1, 2012. Questions of interpretation shall be determined from Part I of Chapter 121, Florida Statutes, and Chapter 60S of the Florida Administrative Code.

Creation

The Florida Retirement System was created December 1, 1970, with consolidation of the Teachers' Retirement System, the State and County Officers and Employees' Retirement System, and the Highway Patrol Pension Fund. In 1972, the Judicial Retirement System was consolidated with the Florida Retirement System. In 2007, the Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences Supplemental Retirement Program was consolidated under the Regular Class of the Florida Retirement System as a closed group. The system was created to provide a program offering retirement, disability, and survivor benefits for participating public employees. Social Security coverage is also required for all members.

Membership

Membership in the Florida Retirement System is required for all full-time and part-time employees working in regularly established positions for state agencies, county governments, district school boards, state universities, and state community colleges; or cities, independent special districts, metropolitan planning districts, and public charter schools that make an irrevocable election to participate. Certain members, including elected officials and local government senior managers, may elect to not participate in the system. Members of the Elected Officers' Class may elect to participate in the Senior Management Service Class in lieu of the Elected Officers' Class or to withdraw from the Florida Retirement System altogether. The following members may elect to participate in various optional retirement programs instead of the Florida Retirement System Pension Plan:

- ◆ Most Pension Plan members (including renewed members), Senior Management Service Optional Annuity Program participants, and State Community College Optional Retirement Program participants may elect to participate in the Florida Retirement System Investment Plan. Florida Retirement System Pension Plan members who retired and chose to participate in the Deferred Retirement Option Program are not eligible to become members of the Florida Retirement System Investment Plan;
- ◆ Senior Management Service Class members who are state employees (including state-level Elected Officers' Class members who choose to participate in the Senior Management Service Class) may elect to participate in the Senior Management Service Optional Annuity Program, while locally designated members of the Senior Management Service Class may elect to opt out of the system altogether. Assistant state attorneys, assistant public defenders, assistant attorneys general, and assistant statewide prosecutors cannot participate in the Senior Management Service Optional Annuity Program;
- ◆ State University System faculty, executive service employees, and administrative and professional employees may elect to participate in the State University System Optional Retirement Program except for faculty at colleges of a state university that has a faculty practice plan. These faculty members are mandatory State University System Optional Retirement Program participants; and
- ◆ State Community College System faculty and certain administrators whose positions are covered by the Regular Class may elect to participate in a State Community College Optional Retirement Program, if the college offers an optional retirement program.

Classes of Membership

Regular Class – This class consists of members of the Florida Retirement System who do not qualify for membership in the Special Risk, Special Risk Administrative Support, Elected Officers', or Senior Management Service Classes.

Special Risk Class – This class consists of members who meet the criteria to qualify for this class according to Florida Law and Rules, and who are employed as:

- ◆ Law enforcement officers;
- ◆ Firefighters, fire prevention and firefighter training positions, and aerial firefighting surveillance pilots for the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services);
- ◆ Correctional officers and community-based correctional probation officers;
- ◆ Paramedics or emergency medical technicians whose primary duty and responsibility includes on-the-scene emergency medical care and who are employed with a licensed Advance Life Support or Basic Life Support employer;
- ◆ Professional health care workers in specified positions within the Department of Corrections or the Department of Children and Family Services who spend at least 75 percent of their time performing duties that involve contact with patients or inmates in a correctional or forensic facility or institution;
- ◆ Youth custody officers with the Department of Juvenile Justice; or
- ◆ Forensic employees employed by a law enforcement agency or medical examiner's office.

Special Risk Administrative Support Class – This class consists of certain former Special Risk Class members who are transferred or reassigned to a non-special-risk law enforcement, firefighting, correctional, or emergency services administrative support position within a Florida Retirement System special risk employing agency and meet the criteria set forth in Florida Law.

Elected Officers' Class – This class consists of members who hold specified elective offices in either state or local government:

- ◆ State officers include: Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Cabinet Officer, Legislator, Supreme Court Justice, district court of appeal judge, circuit judge, county court judge, state attorney, and public defender.
- ◆ County officers include: sheriff, tax collector, property appraiser, supervisor of elections, school board member, school board superintendent, clerk of circuit court, county commissioner and other elected officials with countywide authority.
- ◆ City or special district officers include: elected officials in cities and special districts that have chosen to place their elected officials in the Elected Officers' Class instead of the Regular Class during the six-month window periods offered in 1997, 2001, 2009, or at the time of joining the Florida Retirement System on or after January 1, 2010.

Senior Management Service Class – This class consists of:

- ◆ Members of the Senior Management Service of State Personnel System;
- ◆ Community college presidents;
- ◆ Appointed school board superintendents;
- ◆ County and city managers;
- ◆ Selected managerial staff of the Legislature;
- ◆ The Auditor General and managerial staff;
- ◆ The Executive Director of the Ethics Commission;
- ◆ The State University System Executive Service and university presidents;
- ◆ Selected managerial staff of the State Board of Administration;
- ◆ Judges of compensation claims;
- ◆ Selected managerial staff with the Judicial Branch;
- ◆ Capital collateral regional counsels and assistant capital collateral regional counsels;
- ◆ Assistant state attorneys;
- ◆ Assistant public defenders;

- ◆ Assistant statewide prosecutors and assistant attorneys general;
- ◆ Elected officials who chose to join the Senior Management Service Class in lieu of the Elected Officers' Class;
- ◆ Nonelective managerial positions designated for Senior Management Service Class membership by local government agencies;
- ◆ Chief Deputy Court Administrator;
- ◆ Adjutant General, Assistant Adjutant General-Army, Assistant Adjutant General-Air, State Quartermaster, Director of Military Personnel, Director of Administration, and selected managerial staff of the Department of Military Affairs; and
- ◆ County Health Department directors and administrators of the Department of Health.

Contributions

Effective July 1, 2011, both employees and employers of the Florida Retirement System are required to make contributions to establish service credit for work performed in a regularly established position. Effective July 1, 2002, the Florida Legislature established a uniform contribution rate system for the Florida Retirement System, covering both the Florida Retirement System Pension Plan and the Florida Retirement System Investment Plan. The uniform rates for Fiscal Year 2012-13 are as follows:

Class	Employee Contribution Rate	Employer Contribution Rate*	Total Contribution Rate
Regular	3.00%	5.18%	8.18%
Special Risk	3.00%	14.90%	17.90%
Special Risk Administrative Support	3.00%	5.91%	8.91%
Elected Officers
Judges	3.00%	11.93%	14.93%
Governor, Lt. Governor, Cabinet, Legislators, State Attorneys, and Public Defenders	3.00%	8.53%	11.53%
Elected County, City, and Special District Officials	3.00%	10.23%	13.23%
Senior Management Service	3.00%	6.30%	9.30%
Deferred Retirement Option Program	N/A	5.44%	5.44%
* These rates include the 1.11 percent contribution for the Retiree Health Insurance Subsidy, the fee of 0.03 percent for administration of the Florida Retirement System Investment Plan and provision of educational tools for both plans, and any applicable unfunded actuarial liability rates.

Any member who terminates employment with a Florida Retirement System employer may receive a refund of any retirement contributions personally made to the system (and lose the associated retirement credit for both their Florida Retirement System and Health Insurance Subsidy benefits), or may leave these personal contributions in the system and keep all creditable service earned through the date of termination.

Creditable Service

Members receive one month of service credit for each month in which any salary is reported for work performed up to their work period during the plan year. Members may also purchase additional credit to increase their retirement benefits under the Florida Retirement System Pension Plan. Credit may be purchased for past service, prior service (including refunded service credit), certain military service (up to four years), approved leaves of absence (up to two years), out-of-state public service (including federal service), non- Florida Retirement System public service and non-public service in certain schools or colleges in Florida (up to five years total, including both in-state and out-of-state service), and in some cases credit for periods of disability retirement. To purchase this service credit, members must meet certain requirements. Only the purchase of past service and prior service may be included in the creditable years of service needed to vest (see Vesting). All other types of service credit purchases become creditable service only after a member is vested based on his/her other service.

Vesting

Since July 1, 2001, the Florida Retirement System has provided for vesting of benefits after six years of creditable service. Members not actively working in a position covered by the Florida Retirement System on July 1, 2001, must return to covered employment for up to one work year to be eligible to vest with less service than was required under the law in effect before July 1, 2001. Members initially enrolled on or after July 1, 2001, through June 30, 2011, vest after six years of service. Members initially enrolled on or after July 1, 2011, vest after eight years of creditable service.

Service Retirement

Members become eligible for normal retirement or unreduced retirement based on their age and/or service when they first meet one of the minimum requirements listed in the following section. Early retirement or reduced retirement may be taken after a member is vested and is within 20 years of his/her normal retirement age; however, there is a 5 percent benefit reduction for each year remaining from a member's retirement age to his/her normal retirement age.

Normal Retirement Requirements for members initially enrolled before July 1, 2011

Regular Class, Elected Officers' Class, and Senior Management Service Class	Vested with six years of service and age 62; or The age after 62 that the member becomes vested; or 30 years of service, regardless of age.
Special Risk Class	Vested with six years of special risk service and age 55; or The age after 55 that the member becomes vested; or 25 years of service, consisting of both special risk service and up to four years of wartime military service, and age 52; or 25 years of special risk service, regardless of age; or 30 years of any creditable service, regardless of age.
Special Risk Administrative Support Class	Special Risk Class normal retirement requirements apply to service in this class if member has six years actual special risk service; otherwise Regular Class requirements apply.

Normal Retirement Requirements for members initially enrolled on or after July 1, 2011

Regular Class, Elected Officers' Class, and Senior Management Service Class	Vested with eight years of service and age 65; or The age after 65 that the member becomes vested; or 33 years of service, regardless of age.
Special Risk Class	Vested with eight years of special risk service and age 60; or The age after 60 that the member becomes vested; or 30 years of service, consisting of both special risk service and up to four years of wartime military service, and age 57; or 30 years of special risk service, regardless of age; or 33 years of any creditable service, regardless of age.
Special Risk Administrative Support Class	Special Risk Class normal retirement requirements apply to service in this class if member has eight years actual special risk service; otherwise Regular Class requirements apply.

Benefit Calculation

Service retirement benefits are computed on the basis of age and/or years of service, average final compensation, and service credit. Credit for each year of service is expressed as a percentage of the average final compensation. For members initially enrolled before July 1, 2011, the average final compensation is the average of the five highest fiscal years' earnings; for members initially enrolled on or after July 1, 2011, the average final compensation is the average of the eight highest fiscal years' earnings. The total percentage value of the benefit received is determined by calculating the total value of all service, which is based on the retirement plan and/or class to which the member belonged when the service credit was earned. The following chart shows the percentage value for each year of service credit earned:

There are three steps in computing an annual retirement benefit:

- Step 1. Determine the member's retirement plan(s) and class(es) of membership, years of creditable service in each, and the total percentage value earned.
- Step 2. Calculate the average final compensation.
- Step 3. Multiply the figures obtained in Steps 1 and 2 to determine the annual normal retirement benefit. (If you elect to retire early, your benefit will be reduced by 5 percent for each year remaining before you would reach your normal retirement age. Your benefit may also be reduced if you elect to provide a continuing benefit to a beneficiary.)

Benefit Options

Members must select one of the four benefit options at retirement:

- Option 1 – Member receives a benefit for life with no continuing survivor benefit at death.
- Option 2 – Member receives a reduced benefit for life. If member dies anytime within ten years after retiring, the beneficiary will receive the benefit for the remainder of the ten-year period from the member's retirement date or Deferred Retirement Option Program begin date. No survivor benefits are paid if the member dies ten or more years after his/her effective retirement date.
- Option 3 – Member receives a reduced benefit for life. Upon the member's death, the joint annuitant, if living, will receive the same benefit for the remainder of his or her life. A joint annuitant who is under age 25 and is the member's child or other dependent for whom the member has guardianship will receive the member's Option 1 benefit, but only until age 25, or, if disabled, until he or she is no longer disabled.

Option 4 – Member receives a reduced benefit for life. Upon the death of either the member or the joint annuitant, the survivor will receive a lifetime benefit equal to two-thirds of the benefit the member was receiving when both were living. A joint annuitant who is under age 25 and is the member's child or other dependent for whom the member has guardianship will receive the member's Option 1 benefit, but only until age 25, or, if disabled, until he or she is no longer disabled.

Termination

Members must end all employment relationships with all Florida Retirement System employers for the first six calendar months after their Deferred Retirement Option Program termination date or their non-Deferred Retirement Option Program effective retirement dates to complete their retirement process, in addition to meeting all other requirements to receive monthly benefits payable under the Florida Retirement System Pension Plan. Florida Retirement System members employed by an agency that withdrew from the Florida Retirement System effective January 1, 1996, for new employees must remain unemployed by that agency and all other Florida Retirement System-covered employers for the first six calendar months.

Deferred Retirement Option Program

The Deferred Retirement Option Program is available under the Florida Retirement System Pension Plan when the member first reaches eligibility for normal retirement. The Deferred Retirement Option Program allows a member to retire while continuing employment for up to 60 months. While in the Deferred Retirement Option Program, the member's retirement benefits accumulate in the Florida Retirement System Trust Fund [increased by a cost-of-living adjustment each July (see Cost-of-Living Adjustments)] and earn monthly interest equivalent to an annual rate of 1.30 percent. (Deferred Retirement Option Program participants with an effective Deferred Retirement Option Program begin date before July 1, 2011, earn monthly interest equivalent to an annual rate of 6.50 percent.)

The election to participate in the Deferred Retirement Option Program must be made within 12 months of the member's normal retirement date, unless the member is eligible to defer the election. To participate for the maximum Deferred Retirement Option Program period, the member must enter the Deferred Retirement Option Program upon first reaching eligibility for normal retirement, or upon reaching an eligible deferral date as described below:

- ◆ A Special Risk Class member initially enrolled in the Florida Retirement System before July 1, 2011, who reaches his or her normal retirement date based upon years of service before reaching age 52 may defer Deferred Retirement Option Program entry up to age 52 and still participate for 60 months. Also, a member of the Special Risk Administrative Support Class who has at least the number of years of Special Risk Class service required to be vested and reaches his or her normal retirement date based upon years of service before reaching age 52 may defer Deferred Retirement Option Program entry up to age 52 and still participate for 60 months.
- ◆ A Special Risk Class member initially enrolled in the Florida Retirement System on or after July 1, 2011, who reaches his or her normal retirement date based upon years of service before reaching age 55 may defer Deferred Retirement Option Program entry up to age 55 and still participate for 60 months. Also, a member of the Special Risk Administrative Support Class who has at least the number of years of Special Risk Class service required to be vested and reaches his or her normal retirement date based upon years of service before reaching age 55 may defer Deferred Retirement Option Program entry up to age 55 and still participate for 60 months.
- ◆ A member of the Regular Class, Elected Officers' Class, or the Senior Management Service Class initially enrolled in the Florida Retirement System before July 1, 2011, who reaches his or her normal retirement date before reaching age 57 may defer Deferred Retirement Option Program entry until age 57 and still participate for 60 months. A member of the Special Risk Administrative Support Class who does not have the number of years of Special Risk Class service required to be vested would be subject to these deferral requirements.

- ◆ A member of the Regular Class, Elected Officers' Class, or the Senior Management Service Class initially enrolled in the Florida Retirement System on or after July 1, 2011, who reaches his or her normal retirement date before reaching age 60 may defer Deferred Retirement Option Program entry until age 60 and still participate for 60 months. A member of the Special Risk Administrative Support Class who does not have the number of years of Special Risk Class service required to be vested would be subject to these deferral requirements.
- ◆ A member who reaches his or her normal retirement date during a term of office may defer the Deferred Retirement Option Program election until the next succeeding term in that office and still participate for up to 60 months or until the end of that succeeding term, whichever is less.
- ◆ A member who is employed as K-12 instructional personnel as defined in section 1012.01(2), Florida Statutes, may elect to participate in the Deferred Retirement Option Program at any time after reaching his or her normal retirement date and still participate for 60 months.

Upon termination, the Deferred Retirement Option Program account is paid out as a lump sum payment, a rollover, or a combination partial lump sum payment and rollover, and monthly benefits are paid to the member in the amount as calculated upon entry into the Deferred Retirement Option Program, plus cost-of-living adjustments for intervening years.

In most cases, the Deferred Retirement Option Program participant must cease employment after a maximum of 60 months in the Deferred Retirement Option Program, must satisfy the termination requirements for retirement and must comply with applicable reemployment restrictions thereafter. However, certain exceptions apply:

- ◆ Effective July 1, 2002, a Deferred Retirement Option Program participant who holds an elective office may end Deferred Retirement Option Program participation and postpone compliance with termination requirements and reemployment limitations until he or she no longer holds the elective office (including consecutive terms in the same office). For the period between the end of Deferred Retirement Option Program participation and termination, no retirement credit is earned and the member's Deferred Retirement Option Program accumulation accrues no additional monthly benefits. If Deferred Retirement Option Program participation began before July 1, 2010, the member's Deferred Retirement Option Program accumulation continues to earn interest after participation ends and before termination. If Deferred Retirement Option Program participation begins on or after July 1, 2010, the Deferred Retirement Option Program accumulation does not earn interest during the period after Deferred Retirement Option Program participation ends and termination.
- ◆ K-12 instructional personnel employed with a district school board, the Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind or a developmental research school of a state university may be allowed to extend their Deferred Retirement Option Program participation for up to an additional 36 months beyond their initial 60-month Deferred Retirement Option Program participation period. To qualify for the extension, the Deferred Retirement Option Program participant must receive authorization from the employer and be approved by the Division. If authorized to extend Deferred Retirement Option Program participation, a participant must remain employed in an eligible position during the period of Deferred Retirement Option Program extension.

Disability Benefits

There are two types of disability retirement available under the Florida Retirement System: In-line-of-duty disability retirement and regular disability retirement. To qualify for either type of disability retirement, members must be totally and permanently disabled to the extent that they are unable to work in any job for any employer. In-line-of-duty disability benefits are available to members on their first day of employment. The minimum Option 1 benefit for in-line-of-duty disability retirement is 42 percent of their average final compensation for all members except those in the Special Risk Class, who receive a minimum Option 1 in-line-of-duty disability benefit of 65 percent of their average final compensation. To be eligible for regular disability retirement, members must complete eight years of creditable service. The minimum Option 1 benefit under regular disability retirement is 25 percent of their average final compensation. If a disabled member's service benefit would be higher than the minimum disability benefit, the member may elect to receive the higher benefit.

Survivor Benefits

If an active member dies in the line of duty, his/her spouse will receive a monthly benefit equal to one-half of the member's monthly salary at death, payable for the spouse's lifetime. If the spouse dies, the benefit will continue to be paid on behalf of the member's dependent children until the youngest child reaches age 18 or is married, if earlier.

If an active member dies before becoming vested and his/her death was not suffered in the line of duty, the designated beneficiary will receive a refund of any member-paid retirement contributions. However, if the active member dies within one year of vesting, the member's joint annuitant may use the deceased member's accumulated leave on an hour-by-hour basis, or the member's eligible in-state or out-of-state service, to purchase enough service credit to vest the deceased member and receive monthly benefits.

If the member was vested at death, the beneficiary may receive a refund of any contributions that may have been paid by the member or, if the beneficiary qualifies as a joint annuitant, he or she may receive a lifetime monthly benefit calculated as though the member had retired on the month following the date of death and had chosen Option 3. If the joint annuitant is the member's child or other dependent for whom the member has guardianship who is under age 25, he or she will receive the member's maximum benefit until age 25, or, if disabled, until no longer disabled. A deceased member's joint annuitant may buy any service credit that could have been claimed by the member at the time of death if the member's termination of employment was due to death.

Cost-of-Living Adjustments

The benefits received by retirees and beneficiaries are increased by a cost-of-living adjustment each July based on their June benefit amount (excluding the Retiree Health Insurance Subsidy benefit). For retirees who have been retired for less than 12 months on July 1, the first cost-of-living adjustment increase is prorated. The cost-of-living adjustment applies to all continuing monthly retirement benefits paid under the Florida Retirement System Pension Plan (i.e., normal and early service retirement benefits and benefits accruing in participant accounts under the Deferred Retirement Option Program, disability retirement benefits, and survivor benefits). The cost-of-living adjustment for retirements or Deferred Retirement Option Program participation effective before August 1, 2011, is 3 percent per year. The cost-of-living adjustment formula for retirees with an effective retirement date or Deferred Retirement Option Program begin date on or after August 1, 2011, will be the sum of the pre-July 2011 service credit divided by the total service credit earned multiplied by 3 percent. Each Pension Plan member with an effective retirement date of August 1, 2011, or after will have an individual cost-of-living adjustment factor for his/her retirement. Florida Retirement System Pension Plan members initially enrolled on or after July 1, 2011, will not have a cost-of-living adjustment after retirement.

Reemployment after Retirement

After retirement or Deferred Retirement Option Program termination, retired Florida Retirement System members may be employed by any private employer or any public employer not participating in the Florida Retirement System without affecting his/her Florida Retirement System benefits. However, restrictions apply to reemployment with a Florida Retirement System employer regardless of whether the employment is covered for retirement. Any retired Florida Retirement System member who is reemployed by a Florida Retirement System employer before meeting the definition of termination is not considered to have retired. His/her active membership will be reinstated and all benefits received must be repaid. If a member retires from a Florida Retirement System employer that withdrew for new employees effective January 1, 1996, the member must remain unemployed by the withdrawn employer to meet the definition of termination in order to finalize his/her retirement.

Upon meeting termination requirements, Florida Retirement System retirees who are reemployed by Florida Retirement System employers may not receive both salary and retirement benefits for the rest of the first 12-calendar months after retirement or the end of their Deferred Retirement Option Program participation, and must forfeit retirement benefits for the months employed.

There are no reemployment exceptions for the seventh through the twelfth calendar months after meeting the definition of termination (the first six calendar months). The retirement benefit must be suspended in any month employed in any capacity by a Florida Retirement System employer.

Renewed Membership

Retirees of the Florida Retirement System who are initially reemployed in regularly established positions on or before June 30, 2010, will have renewed membership in the Regular Class, the Senior Management Service Class, or the Elected Officers' Class and earn credit toward a second-career benefit based on requirements for their class of membership. Having a break in service or not being employed on July 1, 2010, does not change a renewed member's status. Once retirees have established renewed membership in the system, they will have the same opportunities to elect to participate in alternative defined contribution retirement programs instead of the Florida Retirement System as do similarly situated newly hired members of that membership class until they retire. Renewed members are subject to the same vesting requirements and other limitations as apply to other active members. However, renewed members are not eligible to participate in the Special Risk Class, retire and participate in Deferred Retirement Option Program, or to retire under disability retirement provisions.

Florida Retirement System retirees who are initially reemployed on or after July 1, 2010, are not eligible for renewed membership. In addition to Florida Retirement System Pension and Investment Plan retirees, the renewed membership restriction also includes retirees of the State University System Optional Retirement Program, the State Community College System Optional Retirement Program, the Senior Management Service Optional Retirement Programs, and local government senior managers who chose to withdraw from the Florida Retirement System.

Appeals Procedure

Whenever the division makes a decision that will reduce, suspend or terminate a member's retirement benefits, the member may petition the division for a hearing. Section 28-106.201, Florida Administrative Code, outlines the requirements for filing a petition. After the division reviews the petition, the state retirement director may ask a hearing officer from the Division of Administrative Hearings to conduct the hearing, or in some cases the Department of Management Services may conduct the hearing. If the outcome of the hearing is not in the member's favor, the member will be informed of the time period during which he or she can appeal the decision to the District Court of Appeal.

Forfeiture of Benefits

If, before retirement, a member commits a felony specified by law and is found guilty of or enters a plea of no contest to such crime, or their employment was terminated due to admission of committing, aiding, or abetting a specified crime, the member's retirement rights and benefits are forfeited (except for a refund of personal retirement contributions, if any). The forfeiture of benefits provision applies in the case of any job-related felony offense as outlined below:

- ◆ Committing, aiding or abetting an embezzlement of public funds or any grand theft from the employer;
- ◆ Committing bribery in connection with employment;
- ◆ Committing any other felony specified in Chapter 838, Florida Statutes, (bribery and misuse of public office), except sections 838.15 and 838.16, Florida Statutes, (commercial bribes);
- ◆ Committing any felony with intent to defraud the public or the employer of the right to receive the faithful performance of duty, or receiving or attempting to receive profit or advantage for the member or another person through the use of his or her position; or
- ◆ Committing an impeachable offense (applies to elected officials only); or
- ◆ Committing of certain felony offenses against a minor through the use or attempted use of rights, privileges, duties, or position of public employment or office.

In addition to the crimes stated above, if a court of competent jurisdiction finds the member guilty of violating any state law against strikes by public employees, the member's benefits are forfeited.

If the member's designated beneficiary is found guilty of intentionally killing or procuring the death of the member, the beneficiary forfeits all rights to retirement benefits. Any benefits payable would then be paid as if the beneficiary died before the member.

The Clerk of the Court, the Secretary of the Senate or the employer, as appropriate, must notify the Commission on Ethics if the member is found guilty, impeached, or terminated prior to retirement due to any of the above offenses. The Commission on Ethics will notify the Division. The member's benefits will be suspended subject to a hearing held by a hearing officer of the Division of Administrative Hearings. The hearing officer's decision may be appealed to the District Court of Appeal. (See section 112.3173, Florida Statutes, and Article II, section 8, of the Florida Constitution for more information.)

Assignment, Execution, or Attachment

Retirement benefits and accumulated contributions accrued under the Florida Retirement System Pension Plan are not subject to assignment, execution, attachment or any other legal process with the exception of qualified domestic relations orders, certain income deduction orders (see section 61.1301, Florida Statutes), and federal income tax levies.
