

What would your family do without your income?

Unum's term life insurance can help.

Better prepared for the future

Jarrod and Amy have two careers, two children, two day care payments and a two-story house on the lake. If either one dies prematurely, one paycheck won't keep the family afloat. They have basic life insurance at work, but they want enough coverage to meet their actual needs.

What happens after you're gone?

93% of Americans think it's important for most people to have life insurance, and yet nearly half of those surveyed say they don't have enough coverage.¹

75% of Americans with dependents worry how their family would manage financially without them.²

Features with value

1. Adds more coverage at affordable group rates

Your employer may offer basic term life, but it's probably not enough for your needs. Buy more term life insurance at an affordable rate. If you leave your job, Unum will allow you to switch to an individual policy. Unum will bill you directly for the premium.

2. Requires no physical exam

If you apply during your initial enrollment, you are guaranteed to receive a specific amount of coverage — your plan's guarantee issue amount — without taking a medical exam or answering any health-related questions.

How to apply) Your benefit enrollment is coming soon. To learn more, watch for information from your employer.

Get the coverage you need.

Term life insurance is offered to all eligible employees. Choose the benefit amount you need — up to your plan’s maximum.

Three reasons to buy this coverage at work — now

1. Once you buy coverage during the initial enrollment, you can add to it each year up to your plan’s guarantee issue amount, without a medical exam or health questions.
2. You get affordable rates for you and your family. Premiums are conveniently deducted from your paycheck.
3. You can keep insurance coverage if you leave the company or retire, provided you aren’t seriously ill. You’re billed at home for your premium amount.

Benefits highlights you’ll appreciate:

Accelerated (early) benefit — If you become terminally ill with less than 12 months to live, you have access to part or all of your life benefit early, up to your plan’s maximum.

Life Planning Financial & Legal Resources — Financial planning and counseling are available to you or your family members at no extra cost if you are diagnosed with a terminal illness or die.

Available family coverage (if offered by your employer)

Who can have it?	What’s the benefit amount?	How long can they keep it?
Spouse Available with purchase of employee coverage; during initial enrollment, does not require a physical exam or health questions unless you request a benefit above the guarantee issue amount.	In increments specified by your plan design — up to 100% (or 50% in some states) of the employee benefit amount.	Your spouse can keep coverage as long as you keep yours, no matter where (or if) you work.
Child Available with purchase of employee coverage for eligible dependent children, which may include stepchildren, legally adopted children and grandchildren, age birth through 26 years.	Birth to age 19 (or 26 if full-time student); in increments of $1,000 up to $10,000, and up to 100% (or 50% in some states) of the employee benefit amount.	Ends when employee policy ends or when children turn 19 (or 26 if full-time students). At the time, children can purchase an individual policy, not to exceed the original children’s benefit amount.
